Mark Donovan. <https://donovanshoneyhill.square.site/>

Medium, 5 frame, includes wooden box.

Fred Jones. whollyhoneybees@gmail.com Mostly deeps, but I will have 5 or so medium nucs. I put in a frame of honey/pollen and 4 of the best frames of capped brood from the colony. Most of my nucs will have daughters from my breeder queens: VSH Poline, VSH Spartan Carniolan, and VSH Harbo. I charge $165 per nuc plus a $25 deposit on the box they come in (Pro Nuc). If they return the box to me within 30 days I will refund the deposit. If they want to bring their own box we can skip the deposit.

We are now taking orders for 5 frame nucleus colonies for Spring 2024. Overwintered nucs with a marked queen for $175 each. These Nucs should be available, weather permitting, around the 20th of April. We should also have Spring Nucs with a marked queen for sale from mid-May through the beginning of June. The queens are local survivor stock.

Limited availability for all Nucs. Local pick up only in Willis or Cana, Virginia.

Nucs come in a Jester Nuc box or on site we can place the colony in your equipment. I will offer a free short bee course at the Willis or Cana apiary. The class consists of going over the frames and explaining what you are looking at, which is great for the new beekeeper.
